1. Regarding paragraph 3 of referent memorandum, the Regulations Control Branch has on record a revision made in 1962 of [ ] concerning release or disclosure of classified or unclassified material to members of congress, which referred any questions as to release of any document to the Deputy Director for Central Intelligence. As a result of a memorandum of 11 July 1969 from the Executive Director-Comptroller, [ ] was revised to refer any questions on release of documents to the Director of Central Intelligence rather than the Deputy Director. That 1969 revision of [ ] is still current.

2. Attached is a copy of a 1 May 1967 memorandum from the Deputy Director for Support to the Director of Security asking him to undertake a review of pertinent regulations pertaining to the classification and dissemination of intelligence information. The Director of Security is now searching for records which would indicate the results of that review. We will be back in touch with you when the Director of Security has completed his search.
